MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

WILLIAM L. WHITE.

MRS. WHITE.

IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

MORE DINNERS AND DANCES FOR PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER.

Recent Sociabilities and Other Time-ly Topics—Weddings.

Notes.

Miss Helen Taft was honor guest last night at a dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. Guy Fairfax Whiting, when the others present included Miss Harriet Anderson, niece of Mrs. Taft and a guest at the White House; Miss Katherine Jennings, Miss Eudora Clover, Miss Sophy Johnston, Miss Dorothy Gardiner Williams, the Misses Southerland, Miss Julia Whiting, Mr. Robert Taft and his guests, Mr. John M. Given of Chicago, Mr. Philip and Mrs. French, Baron Hardenbroeck, Capt. Graham L. Johnson, Mr. William Spencer, Mr. William Bowie Clarke, Commander Long, Dr. Grayson and Dr. Henry Martin.

Miss Taft and most of those present went later to Mr. and Mrs. William A. Slater's dance.

Tonight the White House young people will attend the dance at the home of Secretary Meyer.

Mrs. Charles Emory Smith and Miss Frances Sullivan of Philadelphia will be here tomorrow for the White House dance.

Miss Hester H. Singer of Pittsburgh will arrive tomorrow to be with her relatives, Secretary and Mrs. Knox, over New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Glover will give a dinner tonight in honor of Miss Taft, the party going on afterward to the Meyer dance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Culp's contribution to the holiday festivities was a large dinner and dance given at Hauscher's last night for their debutante daughter, Miss Adeline Culp, and her guests, Miss Munrook and Miss Brown. One hundred guests were seated at small tables in the large ballroom. Each table had a centerpiece of red roses. An orchestra played through the dinner and the dance, to which other guests came in. Miss Fogg of Nashville, who is spending the winter in Washington, and Mr. Heitzel of Strasburg, Germany, who is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Culp, were among the guests. Senator and Mrs. Robert L. Taylor, Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Mrs. Gordon Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Mrs. Gatewood, wife of Medical Inspector James D. Gatewood, Mr. N. and Dr. and Mrs. Reid Hunt were also present, although entirely unexpected.

Senator and Mrs. Robert L. Taylor had the pleasure of welcoming the son-in-law, Robert Love Taylor, Jr., and his bride, when they arrived this morning from Nashville, Tenn., where they were married yesterday. The young people had kept the fact of their intended marriage from their respective parents.

Mrs. Lila M. Tolley of Maury county, Tenn., the couple first met a year ago when the bridegroom was a student at the University of Tennessee. Since he entered Georgia Institute of Technology he met his schoolmate again on a visit to Tennessee. Their decision to be married was quickly reached. The ceremony was performed at the home of a fraternity brother.

Mrs. Taylor had a luncheon on for today in honor of Miss Adeline Culp, and her bride, daughter-in-law was just in time to sit down with the other young girl guests and to receive congratulations from all present. Senator and Mrs. Taylor live at Stoneleigh Court.

Miss Elise Browning, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Browning, gave a luncheon today for her guest, Miss Doughty of New York.

Miss Leonora Cox of the Bermuda Islands, who is now making a special study of Latin at Columbia University, New York city, is spending the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Josephine Rich, 1221 East Capitol street. Miss Cox is a vice president of the Chautauqua Literary Scientific Class of 1910, and says that Bermuda has had a woman's literary club for some fifteen years. The National Geographic Society has many members in Bermuda. Mrs. Cox will tell of women's club work in Bermuda.

Mrs. James McMillan was among last night's dinner guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry S. Heath gave a dinner last night with Gen. and Mrs. Bingham as honor guests.

Representative George Edmund Foss of Illinois and Mrs. Foss will go to Boston tomorrow to attend the inauguration of Mr. Eugene Foss, brother of Representative Foss, to the governorship of Massachusetts.

The members of the Yale University Dramatic Association, which will give a performance of "Il Ventaglio"—"The Fan"—at the Columbia Theater tomorrow afternoon, at 2:15 o'clock, will be much entertained while in Washington. They arrive here at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, and after a rehearsal at the theater will be entertained informally at luncheon by T. Frederick Throckmorton, Thomas of Germantown. Mr. Thomas is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and a member of the University and Manhattan clubs of Philadelphia and Germantown. Miss Throckmorton has many friends here. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Henry B. F. Macfarland and Mrs. William N. Strong.

Cadet Charles Janvyn Browne, sergeant major of the corps at West Point, is at home at the Cairo Tuesdays in January.

Mrs. George C. Douglass of Chicago, formerly of Washington, announces the engagement of his daughter Helen to Mr. Frederick Throckmorton, Thomas of Germantown. Mr. Thomas is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and a member of the University and Manhattan clubs of Philadelphia and Germantown. Miss Throckmorton has many friends here. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Henry B. F. Macfarland and Mrs. William N. Strong.

A fine musical program by Prof. Cheney and son preceded the marriage of Miss Mary Lamond, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Lamond of Lamond, D. C., and Mr. William La Rue White of Washington, D. C., which took place last night at St. Paul's Church, Rock Creek. The bride was handsomely dressed in white satin with orange blossoms and veil and carried a white prayer book. She was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. C. C. Lamond of Alexandria, Va. The bride's escort was of the family, was matron of honor and was dressed in blue satin and carried white roses. Miss Frances and Miss Edith King, two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. King of Lisbon, Ohio, were bridesmaids. They were becomingly dressed in pink satin and carried pink roses. Mr. Townly Hays, also of Washington, with the five brothers of the bride, acted as ushers. The church was filled with the friends of the contracting parties and the couple received many handsome and costly gifts. They left immediately after the ceremony for an extended trip through Florida. The bride's going away gown was blue broadcloth with hat to match. They will be at home to their friends after the 1st of February at Lamond, D. C.

A masquerade party was held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schipper, 2008 I street northwest, in honor of their daughter, Miss Virginia Schipper. The rooms were decorated with mistletoe and holly. Among those present were the Misses: Miss Schipper, Miss Augusta Hill, Spanish girl; Blanche Manogue, pink carnation; Mae Manogue, night; Hazel Chisholm, Dutch girl; Virginia Shinn, Dutch girl; Miss Murray, French maid; Grace Johnson, Yama Yama girl; Marjorie Cox, Grecian girl; May C.
